

Use of Electronic Devices During Examinations

The School of Pharmacy prohibits the use of individual electronic devices such as cell phones, personal data assistants (i.e., PDA's), programmable calculators, and portable computers during examinations. Exceptions to this policy are permitted when the use of one or more of these devices is integral to the evaluation process and explicitly authorized by the coursemaster.